Call to Young Artists – Oswego Business and Consumer Expo Art Exhibit / Competition

DEADLINE April 1, 2012

Young artists (from grades 1 through 12) are encouraged to enter their artwork for an exhibit and competition included in Oswego's Business and Consumer Expo on Saturday, April 14, 2011. We are looking for young artists to submit 2-D or 3-D art (either self-created or collaborative works) for the competition; works may be created using various media and must fit exhibit size requirements. Pieces will be judged by several professional artists, and prizes will be awarded in each category and age group.

To Apply: We encourage submissions from 2-Dimensional and 3-Dimensional visual artists, as well as collaborative works from classrooms!

Requirements: Application (completed by parent/guardian or teacher if a class submittal) due on/before April 1, 2012.

Art drop-off for registered participants is scheduled for Friday, April 13 between 6-8pm at the Oswego High School Field House. Artwork may be dropped off earlier by arrangement (contact 630-551-4321 for more information).

Judging begins at 8:00am on April 14th ; award winners will be announced at the Expo at 12:00pm.

Categories: 2-D Art, 3-D Art, Collaborative Works

Age Groups: 1st – 5th grade, 6th – 8th grade, 9th- 12th grade

Size Restrictions: All art work must not exceed size of 18x24 sq. in. for individual works; if special collaborative works exceed 24x36 sq. in., please contact info@foxriveracademy.com or call at 630-551-4321. Measurement restrictions apply to both 2-D and 3-D works.
